

Abnormal weather continues to impact ROC market

- The scheduled e-ROC monthly auction took place today Wednesday 26th February 2014 and 37,337 ROCs were sold. Just over 55,000 ROCs did not meet their reserve price.
- The average price was £41.54 a decrease of £1.03p from last month.
- The market price continues to be effected by the windy weather increasing the ROC supply from wind generators. This is further compounded by the mild conditions which are reducing electricity demand and resultant ROC requirements.
- The dates of the next e-ROC monthly auctions are -
 - Monday 31st March 2014
 - Friday 25th April 2014
 - Friday 23rd May 2014
 - Monday 30th June 2014
